Cross Country Results- A message from the organisers

Hello Everyone,

Last Friday was a glorious sunny afternoon, and the XC races went very well. All schools were represented.

It was a shame that the bus for the Hooe Y5 Girls was stuck in traffic, so they couldn't compete!

The overall results after two events are:

1 st Oreston	747
2 nd Pomphlett	819
3 rd Hooe	968
4 th Elburton	1023
5 th Wembury	1134
6 th Morley Meadow	1261
7 th Sherford Vale	1553
8 th Goosewell	1576

It's still very close and all to play for in the last two events of the season.

The next race will be this Friday 7 March.

World Book Day

Wow! A huge thank you to all you parents for your superb creativity regarding the children's costumes. I think they are the best dressed than I have ever seen. Class teachers will upload some photos on their website class pages for you all to see. Here are some example of the potato characters which are truly amazing.

Congratulations to Mrs Cooke

You may have noticed today that Mrs Cooke costume for World Book Day was Thing 1 and Thing 2 costume, that is her subtle way to let you all know that she is expecting her second child which is due in September. We are thrilled for her.
